

THE RVRMA ~ RANCH HOUSE RULES AND REGULATIONS

Revised June 2017

Eligible Users of the Ranch House

Members and Registered Guests

MEMBERS:

Membership to the River Valley Ranch Master Association (RVRMA) Ranch House Facility is based upon ownership of a lot or unit in River Valley Ranch. Each lot or unit conveys rights to a membership at the Ranch House.

Members shall abide by all Rules and Regulations of the Ranch House. The Principal adults are responsible for ensuring that all persons on the membership account, including minor aged children, understand and follow the Ranch House Rules and Regulations.

Eligibility is determined according to the definition of family as defined in the Amended and Restated Master Declaration of Protective Covenants for River Valley Ranch (hereinafter, "CC&R's") that are assumed by each property owner at the property's closing.

Per the CC&R's (pg. 2 of 2nd amendment paragraph), a "family" may be comprised of the following:

- No more than two principal adults,
- The legal dependents of one or both of the principal adults and/or
- Two additional family members (adults or children) who are related by blood or marriage to the principal adults and living in the residence. Accepted blood relationships are grandparents, parents, siblings, aunts/uncles, nephews/nieces and grandchildren.

Children of the principal adults must be under the age of 25 and living in the home to be eligible as dependents on the membership, otherwise will be considered as part of the two "additional family members" allowed on the account. Residency requirements still apply. Dependents over the age of 17 may be required to show proof of residency.
