

Presents the 2023 – 2024 Concert Season

Folk Legacy Trio

Saturday, September 23, 2023

Two members of the Kingston Trio and the former lead of The Diamonds come together with signature vocal and instrumental arrangements to sing music of the great folk era including songs of The Weavers, Peter Paul & Mary, The New Christy Minstrels, Tom Paxton, Judy Collins, and others.

Charlie Albright

Wednesday, December 6, 2023

Hailed as "among the most gifted musicians of his generation," Albright returns to our stage with a mix of classical, pop and improvisation. His dazzling musicianship together with his relaxed and friendly stage presence will delight us once again.

Divas 3 Thursday, February 15, 2024

Three female singers with powerhouse voices sing hits of great divas of the past. This vibrant show spans four decades of hits by Aretha Franklin, Carole King, Celine Dion, Whitney Houston, and many more. These talented ladies have sung together since 2013 as international headliners and performing in arts centers across the U.S.

Camille & Stuie

Monday, March 4, 2024

Award-winning Australian guitar and vocal duo, Camille and Stuie have been touring together for 20+ years. They recently debuted in the US on the Grand Ole Opry with their son. They want their music to "take people back to a time when the essence of country music was twangy guitars, honest songs, and vocals that tear your heart out." They'll perform songs by such greats as Johnny Cash, Waylon Jennings & Glen Campbell as well as some of their own award-winning songs.

Branden & James with special guest, Effie Passero

Wednesday, April 17, 2024

Renowned cello & vocal duo Branden & James return to our stage with singer/songwriter Effie Passero. They bring to life some of Broadway's favorites, memorable classics, and modern pops. This trio engages the audience through their soothing sound combination of vocals, piano, and cello.

Membership is limited due to facility space so renew early!
